

Diva Creative HR Keren

Diva Keren Creative HR provides executive search and human resource consulting services to the Israeli Biomed and Clean-tech industries. The Company also caters to related business organizations such as venture capital and investor groups, start ups and incubators. We believe that creativity is an essential building block to a thriving business.

Soar to new heights

Founded in 2005, Diva Keren Creative HR provides the market with competent, tailored executive search and placement services in this growing industry. With an in-depth knowledge of the business, locating and offering pre-screened, talented executives suited to the appropriate position and organization is one of the fine crafts provided. Concentrating on these industry niches enables our Company's accomplished team to understand and fulfill customer requirements. Human Resource consulting services are available for companies both large and small, allowing customers to focus on their core business.

Executives interested in repositioning themselves in the market, will find Diva Keren's relationships and extensive network of industry leaders and decision makers to be of immense value.

Diva Keren is unique. Professional, discreet and ethical throughout, the Company serves this expanding business community with integrity and wisdom.

As a Creative HR Company we believe that creativity and excellence are essential to innovative companies. Cultivating creativity, imagination and excellence assures we sharpen our senses, operate proactively and consider new approaches to assist our customers.

Divakeren Services

Executive Search

Executive search is a professional service provided to companies and organizations interested in attracting, hiring and developing key executives. Divakeren Creative HR's executive search team works with our clients to develop job specifications suited to each organization. Executive candidates are then identified, interviewed and qualified, before presenting them to client companies. Correctly assessing the candidates' job-fit potential is vital to ensure swift and cost-effective placement. We follow up all placements to guarantee success. Applying creativity to our customers' requirements allows us to reach the best possible candidates.

HR Consultancy Services

Divakeren Creative HR offers a range of HR consulting services, specializing in growing companies and change and crisis management. Tailored to meet each and every customer's specific requirements, these services are also available in-house:

- Human Resource Management - Offering companies the opportunity to outsource their HR Management requirements.
- Recruitment and HR Resource Planning – Plan and execute HR resource, recruitment and placement processes.
- Management Coaching – Provide management coaching and development programs, tailored to customers' specific organizations and requirements..
- Career Management and Counseling – This service is provided both within organizations and to executives interested in career counseling and repositioning.
- The range of services provided enable companies to recruit, retain and manage top-notch executives where quality and time are of essence to the organization

About Divakeren

Divakeren, founder of "Divakeren Creative HR" has over 15 years experience in Human Resource Management, specifically in the Biomed sector, expanding into Clean-Tech. She has an extensive background in management and HR consulting, including career management and professional and life coaching. Divakeren offers exclusive, tailored, quality services, promptly and at the client's pace.

"I believe that a myriad of opportunities present themselves when Creativity becomes a part of life.

These may be opportunities related to professional or personal lives. Whichever the case, life becomes richer."